MANTRA

It is scientifically proven that reading a positive statement on a regular basis creates positive change in your life. Now, let's create YOUR positive daily mantra. Read this every day first thing as you awaken to kick off your day with focus, clarity, and vision for what you want to create in your intentional day.

Example: My day flows with ease and confidence. I have all the time I need to enjoy my family, my team, and my passions. My actions and interactions inspire those I connect with. My energy is bright, magnetic and contagious. I attract fun, go getter, driven, high energy people to me who are ready to join me in my business. I lead by example as I enroll and grow my team powerfully. I am living my purpose and inspiring others to live theirs.

I AM ALIVE. I AM ON FIRE. I AM CONTAGIOUS. I AM AN INFLUENCER.

I am _____
